

PLAN 2 PHYSICAL THERAPY CLINICS IN BUCKS COUNTY

Expanded Program of Phila.
Society for Crippled Children and Adults

1 TO BE AT CROYDON

Will Be Able to Treat More Patients Than In
The Homes

Starting October 1st, the Philadelphia Society for Crippled Children and Adults will increase its operating effectiveness in Bucks County by instituting a completely reorganized physical therapy program. The program will consist of eliminating home treatments and doing the work in a new county center located in Croydon, and a center at Doylestown.

The center will be staffed by two physical therapists and will be open once a week for this work. The definite operating time schedule will be announced at a later date.

Wesley A. Gilman, president of the society, announced that new referrals for the area are to be sent to the Philadelphia Society for Crippled Children and Adults, 20th and S. College avenue, Philadelphia 21, as the reorganization of this program will allow the society to take care of a much greater number of handicapped people.

Croydon clinic will be set up in the headquarters of Bucks County Rescue Squad.

"With the case load becoming so heavy, we are discontinuing the home treatments," advised a representative of the society today. "At the two clinics, which will be staffed by two physical therapists, we will be able to care for more cases." The physical therapists will be specially trained for cerebral palsy work as well as for other cases.

At the centers there will be cared for those who have or have had cerebral palsy, strokes, infantile paralysis, hemiplegia, etc. Posture cases will also be treated.

All individuals who have been treated at their homes during the past have been advised of the setting up of the clinics, so they may be taken there for treatments. Some will be treated once a week, and some every two weeks, depending upon the cases.

The number of cases it will be possible to handle during each clinic day is impossible to determine, it depending upon the type. Cerebral palsy cases are usually given an hour's treatment, while a half hour is the time-limit for cases of stroke.

Both children and adults will be accepted as patients.

The clinic days as far as is known will be Tuesdays, with the hours at Croydon being from nine a. m. until 12 noon, and at Doylestown from two to five p. m. Should there be any changes, officials of the society state the public will be advised.

A real estate transaction, involving the sale of the former Lu Lu Park, later known as the fair grounds, reveals plans for another high school building program in Quakertown.

A group of eight men have taken title to the land under the name of Park Manor Co. The purchase price of the park area was $17,500, and an adjoining plot fronting on Park avenue was purchased from the Allen K. Smith Estate for $4,000.

The members of this development company are school directors Jacob L. Stoneback, Peter C. Romig, Howard Kooker, Jr., Ray Z. Hartman, Hobart G. Biehn, E. Howard Strawn and Dr. William F. Weisel, also supervising principal Joseph S. Neidig.

These men have taken title to the land as a group of citizens and not as a school board.

They explain in a statement issued their interest in the welfare of the schools, and need of planning to care for increased enrollments in years to come.

Earl Schwager, Sellersville, had a narrow escape from serious injury when his automobile and northbound trolley car of the Lehigh Valley Transit Company collided at the Seventh and Walnut streets crossing at Perkaskie.

Although his automobile was dragged for forty feet by the trolley car, which was operated by William Alderfer, Souderton, Schwager was unhurt.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

Half the population of Rio de Janeiro welcomed President Truman yesterday on his arrival in the Brazilian capital to address the Inter-American Defense Conference and later the Brazilian Congress.

On the other side of South America the revolt against the Manchero regime in Ecuador spread, counter-revolutionists capturing Guayaquil. In Mexico, President Aleman delivered his first annual message. He called for honesty in public office and promised reduced and simplified taxes.

The majority and minority reports of the United Nations Special Committee on Palestine gave some measure of pleasure to Zionists, who asked that the recommendations be improved. Arabs, incensed over the proposal to turn the port of Jaffa over to the Jews, threatened to fight. Britain withheld official comment, but the press represented the job of enforcement during the transition period.

Despite a demand by the Trades Union Council that miners dig more coal to ease Britain's crisis, 8,000 strikers in South Yorkshire refused to resume work.

ONE WEEK TILL ELECTION!

One week from today, on September 9, will be the Special General Election to name a successor to the late Congressman Charles L. Gerlach.

ARE YOU READY FOR IT? It is one of the most important elections in American history. On it hangs many questions—the future of Constitutional Government, the chances for an era of labor peace, the hopes for a period of full production and declining prices, the question of whether American citizens are to continue to enjoy the blessings of democracy under the principle of home rule in election, and the basic problem of whether the COMMUNISTS ARE TO BE SMOKED OUT FROM THEIR AMBUSHES IN THE LABOR FRONT AND THE NEW DEAL POLITICAL FRONT!

Do you know the candidates? Do you know the issues? Do you know that there has been a bold invasion of your Bucks-Lehigh Congressional District by outside union bosses and outside union funds? Do you know that the "Democratic" candidate isn't bound by the Democratic platform and Democratic party record—that he's committed to a CIO platform which is a cross between the MOSCOW PLATFORM and the SOCIALIST PROGRAM IN ENGLAND?

Do you know that some of his principal backers don't even pretend to be Democrats—that the Democratic Party has been shoved far, far into the background—that much of his campaign publicity doesn't even refer to him as the Democrats' candidate for Congress?

DO YOU KNOW THAT THE ONLY POLITICAL PARTY IN THE UNITED STATES WHICH HAS CONSISTENTLY STOOD FOR THE THINGS THIS MAN SAYS HE STANDS FOR IS THE COMMUNIST PARTY?

Time is short! If you don't know these things about the balloting scheduled for September 9, a week from today, it's time to study the campaign material and SEE FOR YOURSELF THAT THEY ARE TRUE!

DO YOU KNOW THAT THIS IS AN ELECTION—NOT A PRIMARY?

The big gamble of the interlopers who have flocked here to use this election to kill off the Taft-Hartley Labor Law with

The State Police Say:

Common courtesy behind the wheel can do much to prevent traffic accidents. Courtesy simply means giving the other drivers and the pedestrians the same breaks you'd expect in their places—and giving a little more when you need to in order to avoid the risk of wrecked cars and lives. Courtesy costs nothing — the lack of it may cost a life!

WINDOW CLEANER FALLS

Falling while cleaning windows at a Penna. Railroad tower here yesterday morning, Joseph Nguirone, of the Bronx, New York, sustained a back injury and possible leg fractures. Bucks County Rescue Squad removed him to St. Francis Hospital, Trenton, N. J.

Victims Are George A. Fell, White Horse, N. J., World War II Veteran; John Middleton, 38, Yardville, N. J., and His 6-Year-Old Son, Bruce—Death for Two Instantaneous; Third Dies Within Few Minutes.

A pilot, a man passenger and his six-year-old son were instantly killed shortly before noon yesterday when the airplane in which they were riding crashed on a farm three miles west of Morrisville on the Swamp Road.

The victims: George A. Fell, 36, 1924 McGillard avenue, White Horse, Trenton, N. J.

John Middleton, 38, Yardville, N. J.

Bruce Middleton, 6, son of John Middleton.

The victims were taken to the Mercer Hospital, Trenton, in the ambulance of the Bucks County Rescue Squad, Morrisville ambulance, and Trenton, N. J., police vehicle.

The exact cause of the crash has not been officially determined, but it is presumed that the motor went "dead." The elder Middleton and his son were passengers in the plane piloted by Fell.

Fell, an Army Air Transport Command pilot, was an instructor at the Morrisville Airport, which is located along the old Lincoln Highway, leading from the Lincoln Highway at Fallsington into Morrisville. Fell had had 18 months' service flying planes overseas during World War II. In addition to instructing at the Morrisville Airport he also took passengers up on paid flights.

The plane, which crashed on the farm of Joseph Kungl, was totally wrecked, but did not catch fire. The fact that the plane did not catch fire leads to the belief that the motor went "dead" and that this was the cause of the crash. It struck the ground within 15 feet of a barn and buried its nose into the soft earth, the tail sticking up in the air.

The crash was witnessed by John Burden, brother-in-law of Kungl, who was on the farm. In describing the actions of the plane, Burden said that he was out in the yard near the barn. The plane circled overhead and was low but he at first paid little attention to it. "Planes often fly low and circle over here as they prepare to land at the Morrisville airport," he said. "Then I saw the plane coming lower and I could not hear the motor. I thought that the pilot was going to land and I thought that Joe, my brother-in-law, was in the barn. I yelled 'Hey, Joe, get out of there!' I was sure that the plane would strike the barn." Joe was not in the barn but in a field nearby.

After the plane crashed, Burden called John Hatra, a neighboring farmer. The two men and Mrs. Hatra and Samuel Pagel ran to the plane, pulled down the tail and extricated the trio. They are of the opinion that Fell and the child were dead when taken from the plane but think that the elder Middleton was breathing. "All were terribly battered."

Fell is survived by his wife and four children, the youngest being 18 months and the oldest six.

Notice to Advertisers

Due to changed conditions in the publication of a daily newspaper the Courier finds it absolutely necessary to set an advertising "dead-line" and hereafter reserves the right to reject advertising copy received later than seven days previous to the date of publication.

This means that copy for advertising to be inserted in the Thursday issue of the Courier must be in the Courier office not later than noon of the Thursday previous to publication.

The Courier may also find it necessary to reject copy ordered for a certain day due to a shortage of newsprint which the Courier has on hand sometimes does not warrant accepting copy for a certain date as it might on that date make necessary the printing of a paper of more pages than the stock of newsprint on hand warrants.

We trust our advertisers will co-operate with us and they can rest assured that the Courier will do all that is possible. But we do not want advertisers to feel discriminated against if it is found necessary to reject copy for the date ordered.

WEEDS' DAYS NUMBERED

Ralph Waldo Emerson said that a weed is a plant whose virtues have not yet been discovered, and James Russell Lowell said a weed is no more than a flower in disguise. Some more practical person once described a weed as a plant growing in the wrong place.

Whatever weeds may be, those that are considered nuisances by farmers and truck gardeners are to be things of the past a few years from now.

Dr. Robert P. Sweet of Cornell University told the "Vegetable Growers' Association of America"
at its meeting in Cleveland that,
by 1950, chemicals and other means, including flame throwers,
will be developed to the point that farmers can eliminate weeds from their vegetable fields.

He told of experiments in which vegetables were sprayed to within a month of harvest, completely eliminating weeds without impairing the crop. While 2-4-D is the main "killer" at present, Dr.
Sweet said the others, including the flame thrower, were in the experimental stage and showed equal progress.

Dr. Sweet concluded that rag-weed, chickweed and quack grass
have resisted the "killers" thus far,
but he said their days were numbered also. The elimination of ragweed will prove a boon to city sufferers from hay fever as well as to farmers.

Perhaps the present decade will be cited in history for its successful warfare against insects and weeds. More progress was made in combating those two scourges
in this era than ever before.

LIFE BEGINS AT 65

Although 65 is regarded in some circles as the proper year
for a man to retire from active work, there must be millions of Americans older than that who are still sitting at desks or operating machines.

In New York state alone, for instance, 254,000 persons beyond the age of 65 are regularly on the job. That is 75,000 more than were in this class in 1940.

The war and the need for all-
out production naturally stimulated the employment of the elderly. Many men and women who thought they were through working forever were inspired either to return to their old jobs or accept new ones. Others reaching 65 gave up temporarily their retirement rights.

But now that the emergency is ended they seem to be staying on,
doing well not only by themselves,
but by their employers. New York state labor authorities who have made a study of elderly persons say it is "a cruel fallacy that old folks can't produce a good day's work." Another false idea, they add, is that oldtimers are involved in more accidents.

According to statistics presented in the statement, two-thirds of all industrial accidents occur among those under 45 and the greatest number of accidents occur among the 20-24 age group.
Age and experience, it seems, do count for something.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

by a reception and entertainment at their new hall on Wood street.
There were about 250 persons present. The Uniform Rank appeared full in dress uniform.

Mr. Miller, formerly of Philadel-

Booz farm near Emille, died at his home on Sunday afternoon, of lockjaw, caused by a wound on one of his hands recently, which caused blood poisoning and resulted in his death.

The Wheelmen's Roads Association held its first annual meeting last night in Evans Hall. It was largely attended and a great deal of enthusiasm was shown by the members and the work of fixing the paths and roads in this vicinity is now a foregone conclusion. There are over 200 names on the roll, which contains the names of most of our prominent citizens in this section of the county, who will see that the good work does not flag.
The business of the meeting last night was devoted principally to the admission of new members, over 60
being added since the last meeting.

A corporation having for its object the operation of trolley railways in lower and central Bucks County, was fully organized on last Thursday at a meeting held in Philadelphia, and from this time on there will be active work by the parties interested to secure necessary franchises and rights of way,
so that the construction of the road
may be commenced next spring.

The officers elected are as follows:
President, A. S. Cadwallader, of Yardley; vice-president, Dr. J. N.
Richards, of Fallsington; treasurer,
R. Duncan Harris, of New York;
secretary, David Hanley Stone, of Philadelphia; directors, Harry J.
Shoemaker, Doylestown; Walter R.
Johnson, Haverhill; T. Howard
Atkinson, Buckingham; David Sat-
terthwaite, and John T. Fish, Fallsington; Walter Brown, Samuel S.
Harper, James M. Rooney and Edwin Long, Philadelphia; Robert E.
Plewe and George H. Kerwig, New York. A charter was secured on Wednesday of last week. There will be a little over 50 miles of track in the proposed electric road. Beginning at Torresdale it will run to Morrisville, passing through the villages of Newportville, Emille and Fallsington. A short branch will connect Emille and Bristol, and it is hoped to cross the Delaware River bridge from Morrisville to Trenton.
From Morrisville the main line will go to Yardley and from thence to Newtown, North from Newtown it will extend to Pineville and Buckingham, terminating in Doylestown.

One Week Till Election!

its ANTI-COMMUNIST PROVISIONS has been that you and thousands like you WOULD'NT WAKE UP IN TIME! That you would assume, because the SPECIAL ELECTION is being held on the regular fall primary day, it too is a primary—that you would believe the Congressional election is to be run off next November.

THAT ISN'T TRUE! A WEEK FROM TODAY BUCKS
AND LEHIGH COUNTIES ELECT THEIR REPRESENTA-TIVE IN CONGRESS!

Everyone can vote in that election—any registered voter can VOTE FOR FRANKLIN H. LICHTENWALTER, whether he is a Republican, a Democrat or a non-partisan.

Sample ballots will be available this week. Examine your copy carefully. Get familiar with it, so you will not be confused on election day. Take it to the polls with you.

BE SURE TO VOTE ON SEPTEMBER 9!
And when you vote, be sure to VOTE FOR FRANKLIN H. LICHTENWALTER!

Pilot, Two Passengers Killed in Plane Crash

Corporal R. D. Evans and Privates Kuhnley and Jones, South
Langhorne barracks, Penna. State Police, were called by Morrisville police who had been notified from the Knudt residence. The CAA and the Aeronautics officer of Penna.
State Police are both investigating.

The crash happened three miles west of the airport, from which the three had taken off, where Middleton's wife, Elizabeth, 32, was awaiting the return of her husband and son from what was to have been a short aerial tour of the vicinity.

Horace Miller, chief pilot at the field, witnessed the crash from another plane. He reported that the plane, which was flying below the 1,000-foot level, plummeted to earth as
Fell tried desperately to right it.
The craft broke up as it crashed in
a tomato patch.

A sudden gust of wind "apparently hit the down wing so strongly that Fell was unable to pull the craft out of trouble," Miller stated.
The chief pilot said the plane,
which was flying below the 1,000-
foot level, plummeted to earth as
Fell tried desperately to right it.
The craft broke up as it crashed in
a tomato patch.

Frank Pincatore, operator of the Morrisville Airport, told Corp. R. D.
Evans that Middleton, his wife and their son had driven up in their automobile. Middleton said that he and his son would like to take a short aerial ride, and Fell was assigned as their pilot, the airport
operator related.

Fell chose for the trip an airport

owned three-place Piper Cub which recently had been overhauled and
"checked out safe," Pincatore said, adding that the crash happened
about five minutes after the craft
had taken off.

State Aviation Commission authorities joined State police and Civil Aeronautics Authority agents in an investigation of the exact cause of the crash.

Fell, who had been flying for 12
years, was employed by Air Cargo, Inc., of Newark, N. J., before he became an instructor at the airport, according to Pincatore. He is survived by his wife, Ruth, and two children.

Middleton was employed as a tree specialist in the Dutch elm division of the New Jersey State Department of Agriculture.

Inside Your Congress

tion shall be fined not more than $5,000.

—Sec. 313, Labor Management
Relations Act, 1947.

THE LAW which union leaders
say they will not obey was passed over President Truman's veto by two-thirds majority by both Democrats and Republicans.

Labor union members, as well as stockholders, and all citizens are of course free to vote for or against any candidate for any office.

That freedom is inalienable. It belongs to the individual in the privacy of the voting booth. That freedom must be preserved. Congress has acted to preserve it.

To preserve this freedom, Congress, 22 years ago, forbade corporations and banks to contribute money to elect or defeat candidates.
Then in the new law which union leaders refuse to obey, Congress has extended the prohibition to labor unions as well.

The use of such funds, either by a corporation or a union, violates the constitutional right of the individual. For money paid in by either a union member or a stockholder may then be used to defeat a candidate whom the union member or stockholder wants to elect, or to elect a candidate whom he wishes to defeat.

No board of directors of a corporation, or official of a labor union,
has any moral or legal right to use an individual's money for such a purpose. It is just as wrong to force him to contribute money to a political campaign as it would be to force him to mark his ballot the way the union or the corporation directs.

The individual must be protected
in his right to spend his money politically as he pleases and to vote as he pleases. Neither his vote nor his money must be used by any group
to which he belongs without his consent.

The right to vote, or contribute to a campaign belongs to no group.
It belongs to the individual American citizen and to him alone, to use as his conscience may direct.

Every member of a labor union should be the first to ported against the use of his money in political campaigns without his consent.

Congress, in prohibiting not only contributions but expenditures, had in mind two purposes: (1) to protect the right of the union member against having his money used politically without his consent; (2) to prevent corruption in elections by the secret use of huge funds, wholly outside of organized political committees which, under law, are limited in the amount they may spend and which must make detailed publications to Congress.

Both of these purposes are clearly in the public interest. Both are designed to insure elections which honestly reflect the wishes of a majority of our citizens. In short,
"government by the consent of the governed," which is the foundation stone of free government.

Now the C. I. O. and the A. F. of
L. defy the law.

Question: Will the President of the United States and his Attorney General enforce the law—as they are sworn to do?

says CLEMENTINE PADDLEFORD, Food Editor of This Week

Here's the answer to you women who are wondering if you should still save used fats! Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson says, "It is still necessary to conserve every pound of fat, since the over-all fat supply situation is little better now than it was last year." You see, many things we use require industrial fats or their products, and there aren't enough fats in the world to go around, as yet. So every pound we women of America can save will help. Please... keep up the good work until we've got this situation really licked.

The three bridesmaids, the Misses Bertrice Jaskiewicz, Jane Balanica and Frances Zawadzka wore gowns and headpieces styled like those worn by the matron of honor, but in orchid tones. Heart-shaped bouquets of yellow roses were carried. Silver slippers were worn by the four attendants. Lorraine Martinez, niece of the bride, was the flower girl. She was attired in lettuce green net over tulle, styled identical to those of the bridesmaids. She wore an open crown bonnet, white slippers, and carried a small heart-shaped bouquet of starlight roses. The ring-bearer, Stanley Kruzack, Eddington, nephew of the bridegroom, wore a black full dress suit, white shirt, bow tie and black oxford. He carried a heart-shaped, white satin pillow, trimmed with valley lilies.

The vocalist, Miss Emily Matuszewska, rendered "Ave Maria" in Latin and "Mother At Thy Feet Is Kneeling."

Mr. Edwin Oremski, Eddington, served as best man. The ushers were Messrs. Henry Deskevick, Angulosa, and Kenneth Ross. Mr. Baczowski gave his daughter in marriage.

The choice of Mrs. Baczowski, mother of the bride, was a black dress trimmed with pink crepe, black hat with pink feather and black accessories. Mrs. Grakowski, mother of the bridegroom, selected a dress of black serge, black hat and accessories. Both wore corsages of white roses.

A reception took place at the Bridesburg Polish Club, 385 attending. For her wedding trip to New York, N. Y., Montreal and Quebec, Canada, the former Miss Baczowski chose a suit of black gabardine, black felt hat with net veil, peach tone blouse and matching gloves, black handbag and suede slippers. She wore the corsage of orchids from her bridal bouquet. The newlyweds will reside in Eddington.

By the Rev. Samuel R. Gaskell

Our Heavenly Father, may the desire of our hearts be in harmony with one who prayed that he might behold the beauty of the Lord. The beauty of the Lord! We have thought of Thy power, Thy love, Thy goodness, but Thy beauty; how strange. Yet how we enjoy the beautiful, but have thought little of Thine! The beauty of perfection, of goodness, of purity. Yes, we wish to behold it, and in doing so we shall be ashamed of the ugliness of our sins. That is not all of our prayer. We would continue asking in other familiar words: "That the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us." May the beauty of Jesus be seen in us! Amen.

TOWNSHIP EVENS SERIES; DEFEATS BRISTOL TERRACE

Victors Score Eight Runs in The First Three Innings

FINAL SCORE IS 12 TO 2

Township Nine Had a Total of Nine Hits During The Game

Scoring eight runs in the first three innings, the Bristol Township contingent evened the series of the Bristol Youth League by swamping the Bristol Terrace team, 12-2, on Leedom's field, Sunday afternoon.

"Dick" Harman who usually is a nemesis to the Township team had nothing but the cover on the ball as the Township batters knocked him out of the box early in the game. Joe De Paul relieved Harman.

The Township boys had a total of nine hits and three mixed with Terrace errors accounted for most of the runs. Mixed in the nine hits were doubles from the bats of Elker, Roy Lynch, and Anthony Pfaffenrath.

While the Morrellmen were hitting the pill all over the lot, the Terrace boys were having difficulty in solving the slants of "Dave" Morrell who was pitching for Township. Dave would have had a shutout if his brother, Jimmy hadn't messed up a double-play ball hit to him in the fourth frame.

Morrell allowed the Terrace team but six scattered hits and fanned six batters. He was a trifle wild and walked five batters and hit another.

The third game of the series will be played sometime the next week-end.

BETTING SLUMP

WASHINGTON (INS)—Horse-race betting totals are sagging below 1946 figures at a significant number of the nation's leading tracks. Although horseracing in the U. S. is still a tidy billion-dollar-plus business, pari-mutuel betting at a sampling of 1947 race meets averaged about 10 per cent less than for the same periods last year and the year before. In most cases attendance has fallen off less sharply than the average daily betting total.

OUTDOOR BOXING EVENTS CANCELLED

It was announced yesterday that the outdoor season for amateur boxing has officially closed. The announcement cancelled the boxing show that was scheduled for the St. Ann's Arena tomorrow night.

Officials of the Middle Atlantic A. A. U. are now preparing for the Golden Gloves tournament and are expected to sanction a Golden Glove affair here if a suitable indoor arena can be secured.

Further announcements on the indoor season are expected soon.

GAME SCHEDULED

ST. ANN'S WINS CHAMPIONSHIP IN 1ST DIVISION

Wood Street Nine Takes Double-Header and Captures the Honors

GOODWILL LOSES

"Saints" Score a Total of 38 Hits in The Games

Winning both ends of a holiday double-header, St. Ann's A. A. captured the first division championship of the Bristol Suburban League by overwhelming the Goodwill Hose team by scores of 24-1 and 14-3 on the Rohm and Haas field.

In the two games, the "Saints" had a total of 38 hits and leader of the assault on the Goodwill hurlers was "Bert" Barbetta who had five hits on Sunday and three yesterday. Bert drove in a total of eight runs. Also outstanding in the attack was "Rabbit" Fummo who had six hits and scored seven runs. In the two games, Palumbo reached base nine times.

Not only this pair did good work at the plate but also gave a fine performance in the field. Yesterday they took part in four double-plays and also had one to their credit on Sunday. The pair handled 37 chances in the two games and made three errors.

The fine fielding of "Joie" Cahill was the only bright light in the Goodwill Hose's side during the two games. Many times, Cahill ran into deep center and robbed St. Ann's batters of extra base hits with his wonderful catches.

The winning St. Ann's hurlers were "Nate" Chichiletti and "Danny" Keegan. Both of these hurlers were taken out when the St. Ann's batters amassed big leads. In seven innings he pitched, Chichiletti gave Goodwill but three hits. Delfini finished in the first game.

Keegan hurled six innings yesterday and gave up the three runs and seven hits. Five of the hits came in the sixth inning. Keegan was relieved by Gene Saraganes who gave up but one hit in three innings.

Goodwill had a parade of pitchers in the two games. Neal McCartney started on Sunday and was battered from the peak in the fourth when "Bill" McGerr went in. Joe McDewitt was the starting peckman yesterday and he left in the third. McCartney again going to the hill.

Both teams played ragged ball off. St. Ann's committed a total of 11 errors in the tilts while the hosemen had 15. But in the pinches, St. Ann's fielders came through in fine style.

Breeders Enjoy Holstein Farm Tour

ville, RD 2, and third, Sylvia Satterthwaite, Woodside.

Peter P. VanNuys, president of the New Jersey State Holstein Breeders' Association and director of the National Holstein Association, spoke on "Herd Testing."

Pointing to some of the most important factors of the results of years of herd testing, Mr. Van Nuys stated milk records are always available for pedigrees. Certain families can be selected for milk and fat production.

Lawrence Lindquist, Willow Grove, president of the Montgomery County Holstein Breeders' Association, was present, and spoke briefly. Paul Bryan, secretary of the Pennsylvania Guernsey Breeders' Association, was also in attendance and spoke briefly.

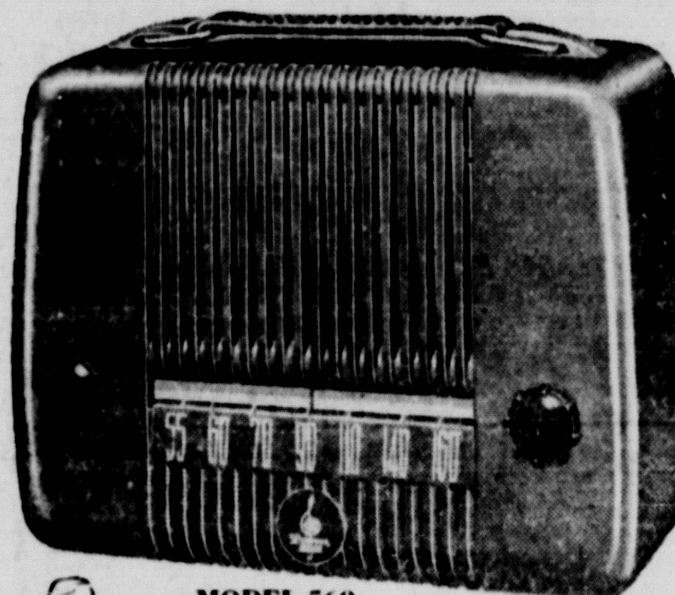

Frothony Isaac S. Gross, of Plumsteadville, was the chairman of the event and Assistant County Agent Donald H. Lane also attended. Arthur Landis is the secretary.

ALUMINUM

TWIN-SLIDING*, Combination Storm Window

With Interchangeable Screens

The Hunter Twin Sliding* Aluminum Combination Storm Window with interchangeable screens, is the first metal window to embody the following all-important features:

1. Complete air-tightness with easily removed inserts.
2. Ventilation in any desired amount.

*The patents on the Hunter Window most vitally affect the exclusive features of superior tightness, combined with easy removability and ventilation.

When you see the patented features of the Hunter window demonstrated you'll realize instantly why it is so superior. Ask for free demonstration.

When you buy storm windows you want above all air-tightness. A storm window which admits air when closed, even in a wind storm, fails in its prime function.

You want to change from storm windows to summer screens quickly and easily, and nothing could be simpler to remove and replace than Hunter inserts.

You want ventilation as you like it, and the Hunter Window gives you complete ventilation control, from a small crack to any desired amount.
